

Asking simple questions and recognising that they can be answered in different ways.

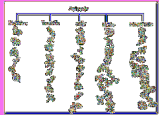

Observing closely using simple equipment.

Performing simple tests.

Identifying and classifying.

Key Stage 1
Working Scientifically
Although described separately in the National Curriculum must “always be taught through and clearly related to the teaching of substantive science content in the programme of study”. (NC 2013)

Using observation and ideas to suggest answers to questions.

Gathering and recording data to help in answering questions.

