

Community Arts Day

Saturday 12th October 2019

The British Legion came along to our Community Day to raise awareness of the Poppy Appeal and to be available to talk to the families .

It was a great day and the British Legion raised just over £180.00.

We are looking forward to working with them again when we take part in the Remembrance Service at Victoria Park on 10th November 2019.